

Congratulations to Alisha Hodgetts winner of the JX Prize!

Alisha Hodgetts (11) of West Coast Swimming Club has won the Swimming WA JX Sydney prize! Alisha created and drew a fantastic new JX mascot – Torri the Western Swamp Tortoise. Torri will join Sebastian as the JX Mascot this year and will be added to the SWA JX web page shortly.

Alisha has won the following amazing prize:

-  Return airfares for two people (Alisha and either Mum or Dad or a Guardian)
-  Twin room accommodation at the Novotel Sydney Olympic Park for 2 nights – Fri 28th and Sat 29th March 2008
-  An Accor Advantage Plus Annual Membership valued at $250
-  Finals tickets for two people to the Telstra Australian Swimming Championships (Selection Trials for the Beijing 2008 Australian Olympic Team) on two nights the 28th and 29th March.
-  Two tickets to the Sydney Royal Easter Show on Sat 29th March
-  A Samsung Next G(TM) mobile phone handset
-  A Speedo gift pack

Congratulations to runners up Madeline Wilkins of South Lake Dolphins (11) for her creation of Sulli the Seahorse and Bianca Russell of Rockingham Swimming Club (10) for her creation of Pedro the Platypus. Madeline and Bianca will both receive a pair of goggles and a swim cap for their great efforts!

Swimming WA would like to congratulate all those who entered on their outstanding efforts and we hope Alisha has a fantastic time in Sydney cheering on all the Swimming WA athletes!

Remember to keep a look out for the addition of Torri and other great new JX program initiatives coming soon.

This fantastic prize would not be possible without the support of Swimming Australia's valued sponsors, including:

