

MELBOURNE 2009

Australian Paralympic Youth Games

The Australian Paralympic Youth Games will be held in Melbourne in October 2009. Hosted by Wheelchair Sports Victoria, with the support of the Australian Paralympic Committee, the Games will provide an opportunity for young athletes with a disability to compete in world class sporting venues across a range of Paralympic sports. Athletes will experience an event environment promoting competition, friendship and culture.

The Games are open to athletes aged 20 years or younger as at 31 December 2009.

Melbourne's premier sporting venues, including the Melbourne Sports & Aquatic Centre will be used for the Games.
